

GIFTING OF SHARES

The gifting of Sealaska shares may only be transferred to an Alaska Native child, grandchild, great grandchild, niece, nephew or sibling by birth or legal adoption.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Complete the gifting form (Part A). The gifting form must be completed by the shareholder who is gifting the shares (the “donor”).
2. Complete the family tree (Part B). Fill in the individual branches, starting with the recipient. It is a history of your family and your ties to a Native heritage. This is used to determine the relationship between the donor and the recipient.
3. Recipient completes the acceptance form (Part C). The recipient receiving the gift of shares must fill out the necessary information on the recipient form, sign it, and attach a copy of their photo ID. If the recipient is under 18, the parent or legal guardian of the child must complete and sign the form on behalf of the recipient.
4. Recipient completes the W-9 Form (Part D). Every new shareholder must fill out a W-9 Form or send a copy of their Social Security Card.
5. If the recipient is under 18 years of age, assign a custodian (Part E). If the recipient of a gift of Sealaska Stock is under 18 years of age, a custodian must be appointed to hold the shares. The custodian may be the recipient’s parent, legal guardian, or the shareholder who is gifting stock. The custodian must complete the Custodian Consent form to accept the appointment.
6. Provide birth certificate(s) or adoption decree. The birth certificate and ID or driver’s license for the recipient is required as well as any birth certificates needed for proof of relationship to the donor. For example, if you are gifting to a niece or nephew, we will need a copy of the birth certificate of the recipient and their parent that is the donor’s sibling. If you are gifting to a grandchild, we will need the recipient and their parent’s birth certificate.
7. Send completed packet to Sealaska. Make sure you and your recipient complete the forms, attach the necessary documents, and sign in front of a notary public before you send the packet back to Sealaska. Once we receive the completed packet, we will process the transfer of shares.

Please send completed forms & documents via mail, email, or fax to:

PART B: FAMILY TREE

FAMILY TREE

The Family Tree is a visual history of your Native heritage. Start by filling in the recipient's name and family member names that connect them to the donor. For example, a grandparent would include themselves, their child (the parent) and the recipient (the grandchild). A sibling would include themselves, their shared parent(s) and the recipient (the sibling). To complete the gifting, we only need the names of the family members that connect the recipient and gifter. However, including additional family information if you have it can be helpful. Cultural information is optional, please fill this out to the best of your ability.

CULTURAL INFORMATION (OPTIONAL)

Sealaska is working to document cultural information to help future generations trace back their ancestry and connection to their homelands. We understand that shareholders may not have access to this information, or may still be learning and connecting with their culture. If you know any of the below information for family members listed in the family tree, please add that information next to their name.

Tribe(s)	Moiety (Please add if this is your mother or father's side)
Clan	Community of Origin
Native Name

CUSTODIAN CONSENT

In the matter of, _____ a minor:

This document appoints, _____ as custodian of all stock and other property that the above-named minor is and may later be entitled to receive from Sealaska, pursuant to the provisions of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act of December 18, 1971, 85 Stat. 688, (43 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.) until the minor reaches age 18. This appointment complies with Alaska Statute 13.46.085.

The undersigned hereby consents to and accepts appointment and designation as custodian for the above named minor and agrees to receive and hold as custodian all stock and property distributed to such minor by Sealaska pursuant to the provisions of the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act, which the said minor is or may be entitled to receive. The undersigned further agrees to collect, hold, manage, invest, and reinvest the custodial property in accordance with the Uniform Gifts to Minors Act of the State of Alaska, as it may be amended from time to time. The undersigned acknowledges that they have read and understand the provisions of Section 13.46.085 and 13.46.110 of the Alaska Statutes, concerning the appointment, powers, and duties of custodians for minors, which appear on the following page.

EXCERPTS FROM THE ALASKA UNIFORM TRANSFER TO MINORS ACT ALASKA STATUTE

Sec. 13.46.085 Native corporations; custodians.

(a) The stock or membership in a corporation organized under the law of this state under 43 U.S.C. 1601 et seq. (Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act) that a minor is entitled to receive under that Act shall be held by a custodian.

(b) A person making a transfer of stock, whether by gift, devise, or other method, may nominate a custodian. In the absence of a nomination, the custodian shall be determined under the order of priority set out below. The appointment becomes effective upon the corporation's receipt of the custodian's written consent to the appointment. The order of priority is:

(1) the legal guardian, if any, of the minor;

(2) a parent, if any, of the minor, as selected by the parents;

(3) an adult member of the minor's family; in this paragraph, "member of the minor's family" has the meaning given in AS 13.46.990, and also includes members of a family with whom the minor has customarily lived.

(c) For good cause, a district court or the superior court may vary the order of priority set out in (b) of this section or appoint another suitable person as custodian.

(d) The custodianship is governed by this chapter, as modified by the following:

(1) [Repealed, Sec. 12 ch 60 SLA 1992].

(2) under AS 13.46.150, a third person is responsible for determining whether stock is inalienable under the Act;

(3) the custodian shall give an appropriate receipt for property received for the minor;

(4) the custodian may not alienate inalienable property except within the limits provided by law;

(5) the form of registration or title shall be "as custodian for (name of minor) under the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act";

(6) a custodian may not receive compensation except, upon application to and approval by the superior court, for unusual and extraordinary services;

(7) custodial property includes securities, money, and other real and personal property under supervision as a consequence of the Act.

(e) Notwithstanding AS 13.46.190, the stock shall be transferred to the minor when the minor reaches 18 years of age, or to the minor's heirs if the minor dies before reaching 18 years of age.

(f) In this section,

(1) "Act" means 43 U.S.C. 1601 et seq. (Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act);

(2) "minor" means an individual who is less than 18 years of age;

(3) "stock" means the stock or membership in a corporation that is organized under the law of this state under the Act and that a minor is entitled to receive under the Act, whether by gift, devise, or other method; "stock" includes inchoate rights to stock.

Sec. 13.46.110 Care of custodial property.

(a) A custodian shall

(1) take control of custodial property;

(2) register or record title to custodial property if appropriate; and

(3) collect, hold, manage, invest, and reinvest custodial property.

(b) In dealing with custodial property, a custodian shall observe the standard of care that would be observed by a prudent person dealing with property of another and is not limited by any other statute, except AS 13.90.010, restricting investments by fiduciaries. If a custodian has a special skill or expertise or is named custodian on the basis of representations of a special skill or expertise, the custodian shall use that skill or expertise. However, a custodian, in the custodian's discretion and without liability to the minor or the minor's estate, may retain custodial property received from a transferor.

(c) A custodian may invest in or pay premiums on life insurance or endowment policies on

(1) the life of the minor only if the minor or the minor's estate is the sole beneficiary; or

(2) the life of another person in whom the minor has an insurable interest only to the extent that the minor, the minor's estate, or the custodian in the capacity of custodian, is the irrevocable beneficiary.

(d) A custodian at all times shall keep custodial property separate and distinct from all other property in a manner sufficient to identify it clearly as custodial property of the minor. Custodial property consisting of an undivided interest is so identified if the minor's interest is held as a tenant in common and is fixed. Custodial property subject to recordation is so identified if it is recorded, and custodial property subject to registration is so identified if it is either registered, or held in an account designated, in the name of the custodian, followed in substance by the words: "as a custodian for (name of minor) under the Alaska Uniform Transfers to Minors Act."

(e) A custodian shall keep records of all transactions with respect to custodial property, including information necessary for the preparation of the minor's tax returns, and shall make them available for inspection at reasonable intervals by a parent or legal representative of the minor or by the minor if the minor has attained the age of 14 years.
